

Change in Recycling Services at the Lopez Drop Box

Beginning on February 24th Lopez Island will join the rest of San Juan County in the commingled recycling program.

Recyclable materials must be separated from garbage but Customers no longer need to separate glass, plastic, aluminum and other materials.

Please log on to the County web site for more information and a list of materials for commingled recycling.

