Language Access Plan of San Juan County Superior and District Courts

I. PURPOSE

This Language Access Plan (LAP) sets forth the San Juan County Superior and District Courts' policy and procedures for the provision of timely, appropriate language access services that ensure access for all limited English proficient (LEP), deaf, hard of hearing, and deaf-blind (D/HH/DB) individuals who come in contact with San Juan County Superior or District Court services and programs. Language access services include both interpretation and translation services for LEP and D/HH/DB individuals.

II. COURT POLICY REGARDING LANGUAGE ACCESS SERVICES

Under Washington state law (RCW 2.42 and 2.43), Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (Safe Streets Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and the regulations implementing these federal laws, Washington courts are required to provide language access services to all LEP and D/HH/DB individuals in civil and criminal court proceedings and in all court-managed services and programs and to develop a written language access plan pursuant to RCW 2.43.090.

It is the policy of the San Juan County Superior and District Courts to provide foreign language interpreter services at no cost to LEP parties, witnesses, victims, and others with an interest (e.g., parents, legal guardians, custodians) in all court proceedings and operations, both civil and criminal, other than when it is the responsibility of other government bodies pursuant to state law. It is also the policy of these courts to provide sign language interpreting services at no cost to persons who are D/HH/DB as required under applicable state and federal statutes and regulations.

San Juan County Superior and District Courts will provide accessible information to LEP and D/HH/DB persons on how to request these language assistance services and vital documents as part of its notice to the public about its language access services.

Although D/HH/DB individuals are covered under the ADA and RCW 2.42 rather than Title VI and the Safe Streets Act, this plan covers language access services for both D/HH/DB and LEP individuals.

III. DATA COLLECTION AND NEEDS ASSESSMENT

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts will, on an annual basis, compile demographic data regarding the language needs of its community. The courts will initially review data from sources such as the following:

- Most recent and relevant U.S. Census and American Community Survey (ACS)
- Local school districts: San Juan Island School District, Orcas Island School

District, Lopez Island School District, Spring Street International School, and Orcas Christian School.

- San Juan County Department of Health and Community Services
- Public Defender
- Legal Defense Screener
- Prosecuting Attorney's Office
- Local legal aid service providers and community-based organizations which focus their service provision on immigrant and refugee populations in order to identify possible immigration and new language trends including, but not limited to: Safe San Juans and local family resource centers.

This data will be analyzed annually to determine whether the court's allocation of language access resources is appropriate.

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts will make every effort to track requests for language access services by:

- Language preference (both spoken, written, and signed)
- Case type (e.g. family law, criminal, housing, etc.)
- Proceeding (e.g. trial, arraignment, initial appearance, etc.)
- Location of service request (e.g. court hearing, Juvenile Court Services, Clerk's office, Court Facilitator services, etc.)
- Whether the language access service requested was granted or denied
- Reason for denial

In addition to mechanisms discussed under the identification of language needs section below, the San Juan County Superior and District Courts will track this internal data in a spreadsheet maintained by the respective court administrators. On a yearly basis, the court will analyze the data collected to identify whether services requested are in fact provided, assist in the allocation of language access resources, and identify gaps in the provision of services to address future needs.

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts will send the final data compilation and analyses in the form of a biennial report to the Washington State Court Interpreter Commission to assist the Commission in monitoring of the court's Language Access Plan, identification of interpreter training and certification strategies, and other tools to assist the AOC and local courts in the provision of language access services.

B. Identification of Language Access Needs and Notice of Availability

LEP and D/HH/DB, individuals may come in contact with court personnel via the phone, TTY / TDD, in-person, or through other means. In addition, there are various points of contact within San Juan County Superior and District Courts where LEP individuals or persons who are D/HH/DB will be in contact with court staff. Sometimes people who need language access services, including translated documents, will not request these services because they do not realize that such services are available at no charge, or because they do not recognize the level of English-language proficiency or communication ability needed to effectively participate in the court program, court proceeding, or court services. The first step in providing language access services is to enable LEP individuals or persons who are D/HH/DB to properly identify their language needs.

As a first step towards ensuring that LEP and D/HH/DB individuals are able to properly identify their language needs and to request language access and assistance services, San Juan County Superior and District Courts have a legal obligation to provide accessible notice to the public of an individual's right to spoken and sign language interpreter services and to be provided vital documents in translated form whenever necessary to access court proceedings and court-managed programs.

1. Identifying Language Needs at Points of Access

San Juan County Superior and District Courts will identify language access needs at all points of contact with the courts, such as the following:

- San Juan County Prosecutor – including Victim Services
350 Court Street, 1st Floor Courthouse, Friday Harbor, WA
360-378-4101

To ensure the earliest possible identification of the need for language access services, San Juan County Superior and District Courts have established internal protocols with the various justice partners which routinely interact with this courts in order for these partners to communicate to the appropriate court staff the needs of LEP or D/HH/DB participants who will be coming into contact with the court. While justice partners themselves may be under a separate legal obligation to provide language access services to their clients, the courts will be notified of any services that fall under the responsibility of the courts as early as possible so services may be provided in a timely and efficient manner.

Examples of justice partners providing this information:

- Sheriff's Office / jail staff
- Probation staff
- Juvenile Court Services
- Prosecuting Attorney's Office – including victim services
- Attorneys and public defender
- Court Facilitator
- Clerk's Offices for Superior and District Courts

2. Notice of the Availability of Language Access Services

In order to facilitate the ability of LEP and D/HH/DB individuals to request their need for language access services, the San Juan County Superior and District Courts shall provide notice of the availability of language access services translated into Washington State's most frequently used languages that states:

Superior Court:

“You have the right to language access services at no cost to you. To request these services, please contact Superior Court Administration Office, 350 Court Street, 2nd Floor Courthouse, Friday Harbor, WA 98250, (360) 378-2399 or (360) 370-7480”.

and

District Court:

“You have the right to language access services at no cost to you. To request these services, please contact District Court Administration Office, 350 Court Street, 2nd Floor Courthouse, Friday Harbor, WA 98250, (360) 378-4017.

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts display this notice on their respective websites and at the following locations:

- Foyer of Superior Court Courtrooms, 2nd Floor Courthouse
- Clerk’s Office for Superior Court, 2nd Floor Courthouse
- Juvenile Court Offices, 2nd Floor Courthouse

Additionally, San Juan County Superior and District Courts have the following resources available at its points of contact, including those listed above when appropriate, to help LEP and D/HH/DB and court staff communicate with each other:

- Language identification cards at all points of contact
- Multi-lingual notices at all appropriate points of contact notifying members of the public of their right to request an interpreter or other language assistance at any point during their contact with the court.

When it appears that an individual has difficulty communicating due to a language barrier, San Juan County Superior and District Court staff must inform the LEP or D/HH/DB person of his or her right to have language access services provided by the courts at no cost to them, even if the LEP or D/HH/DB person has not made a request for the language access services.

V. LANGUAGE ACCESS SERVICES

Once the San Juan County Superior and District Court staff have determined interpreter services are required for an LEP or D/HH/DB individual, court staff have access to the following procedures for securing an interpreter.

A. Language Access Services Inside the Court Room

1. Appointment of a Certified, Registered, or Qualified Interpreter for In Court Proceedings

The persons responsible for appointing or securing the assistance of an interpreter at the San Juan County Superior and District Courts will comply with the following order of preference in appointing an interpreter in RCW 2.43.030:

RCW 2.43.030(1)(b)

An in-person Certified or Registered interpreter who has been credentialed by the Administrative Office of the Courts shall be appointed, whenever possible, unless good cause is found and noted by the appointing authority. "Good cause" includes, but is not limited to, a determination that:

- (i) Given the totality of the circumstances, including the nature of the proceeding and the potential penalty or consequences involved, the services of an in-person credentialed interpreter are not reasonably available to the appointing authority; or
- (ii) The current list of credentialed interpreters maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts does not include an interpreter in the language spoken by the LEP.

RCW 2.43.030(2)

If good cause is found for using an interpreter who is not credentialed by the Administrative Office of the Court, the appointing authority shall make a preliminary determination that the proposed interpreter is able to interpret accurately all communications to and from such person in that particular proceeding. The appointing authority shall satisfy itself on the record that the proposed interpreter:

- (a) Is capable of communicating effectively with the court or agency and the person for whom the interpreter would interpret; and
- (b) Has read, understands, and will abide by the code of ethics for language interpreters established by court rules.

In the event no in-person interpreter is available locally, the court or designated authority will weigh the need for moving forward with the proceeding against any possible negative consequences to the LEP or D/HH/DB person's ability to effectively participate in the proceedings through the use of a remote interpreter, as may be allowed by Washington court rule or law. When evidentiary matters are before the court, the court shall reschedule the hearing until an in-person interpreter is available, whether located in-state or out-of-state, and be made present at the hearing.

San Juan County Superior and District Courts will NOT appoint as interpreters anyone with a potential conflict of interest in the case, including the following: minors; friends and family of the LEP or D/HH/DB person; advocates and attorneys; justice partner bilingual staff; or anyone deemed unqualified after voir dire by the court.

2. Practices in the Appointment and Use of Interpreters

In appointing interpreters, staff at San Juan County Superior and District Courts will ensure that the interpreter and the LEP or D/HH/DB participant can effectively communicate. It is also the practice of the San Juan County Superior and District Courts to:

- Make a determination of the appropriate number of interpreters that may be required for the proceeding. When the proper administration of justice so requires the court will appoint multiple or separate interpreters.
- For long hearing sessions or trials, appoint a team of two interpreters or if no second interpreter is available, allow the interpreter to have frequent breaks to avoid interpreting fatigue, ensure accuracy, and avoid subsequent errors.
- Only allow an LEP or D/HH/DB person to waive his or her right to the assistance of an interpreter if the waiver is knowing, voluntary, and on the record. The waiver of an interpreter may be rejected by the court or later revoked by the person.
- Require interpreters to provide sight translations for documents related to the court proceedings.
- Prohibit interpreters from assisting LEP or D/HH/DB with entering information on court forms without the involvement of court staff in the completion of such forms.
- Provide sign language interpreters for jurors who are D/HH/DB when such persons are called and selected for jury service

3. Calendaring and Scheduling of Interpreters for In-court and Out-of-court Contacts

San Juan County Superior and District Courts will provide interpreter services in a timely manner. In order to provide high quality language access services in an efficient manner, San Juan County Superior and District Courts employ the following practices:

- Coordinating calendars so an interpreter may be available for several matters in the same court location on the same day.
- Establishing systems so that an interpreter coordinator can easily dispatch an interpreter from one court location to another, or one courtroom to another, efficiently. Superior and District Court staff shall coordinate the use of interpreters in order to effectively and efficiently schedule interpreter time.
- Creating a pool of interpreters who may be available by telephone or video to assist in non-evidentiary proceedings or other court programs.
- Currently there is only one certified interpreter and one qualified interpreter in San Juan County. Both interpreters notify San Juan County Superior and District Courts when they are expected to be unavailable and the duration of unavailability. In the event both are unavailable then The Language Exchange will be contacted for telephonic or in person interpreter services.

The Language Exchange
Julie Scerbik
113 Cherry Street #65575
Seattle, WA 98104
Phone: (360) 755-9910
Email: schedule@LanguageExchangeInc.com

4. Remote Interpreting

For short, non-evidentiary hearings when local interpreters are unavailable, the San Juan County Superior and District Courts use the following remote interpreting technologies:

Telephonic interpreting provided by credentialed interpreters:

The Language Exchange
Julie Scerbik
113 Cherry Street #65575
Seattle, WA 98104
Phone: (360) 755-9910
Email: schedule@LanguageExchangeInc.com

The policy or practice of the court with regard to the use of remote interpreting services is as follows:

- Video remote and telephonic interpreting use will be consistent with GR 11.3 and will be used with caution. Generally, in-person interpreters are preferred.
- Telephonic interpreting will be a last resort for courtroom proceedings, and reserved for brief non-evidentiary proceedings such as continuances, given that non-verbal cues – not visible when on the telephone – are critical for communication. Telephonic interpreting can be particularly problematic in some circumstances such as for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing, the elderly, those struggling with mental illness, quiet or nonverbally communicative individuals, and others.
- Video remote interpreting (VRI) will be used appropriately and will meet the requirements for providing effective communication, including,
 - Real-time, full-motion video and audio;
 - A clear, large image;
 - A clear transmission of voices;
 - Adequate training of staff in utilizing the equipment; and
 - Use of Certified interpreters with legal training

in order to be an efficient and effective mechanism for providing language access services when an in-person interpreter is not available, or when only a non-credentialed interpreter is available in person (but a credentialed one is available via video).

The court requires training for staff and appointing authorities on VRI and telephonic interpreting, how to use the technologies, how to best utilize the remote interpreter, and what are appropriate events for such types of remote interpreting service. VRI shall not be the only option available to the court and should be used when in-person interpretation services are not available.

B. Language Services Outside the Courtroom

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts are responsible for taking reasonable steps to ensure that LEP, deaf and hearing impaired individuals have meaningful access to services outside the courtroom. It is the practice of the court to provide interpreters for court-managed services, programs and operations consistent with state and federal language access mandates. In compliance with such mandates, the court shall provide language access services at the following locations and for the following programs:

- Volunteer Guardian ad Litem programs
- Guardian ad Litem programs
- Cashiers
- Court facilitator services
- Criminal diversion programs
- Information counters
- Intake or filing offices
- Juvenile Court offices
- Juvenile diversion programs
- Mandatory mediation (Title 26, Family Law)
- Parenting classes
- Probation offices
- Other: On an as-needed/requested basis, i.e. an interpreter was needed for an online lay guardian training required by statute and only offered in English by Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC); a LEP needed interpreter/translation services during attorney consultation to prepare for hearing)

The court, in compliance with federal and state civil rights laws and regulations, shall provide the most appropriate language access service for these programs and services, including qualified interpreters, bilingual staff, and translated materials and information. When the most appropriate language access service is the appointment of a qualified interpreter, the court shall follow the guidelines described for the appointment of interpreters.

As noted in the policy interpretation section earlier, RCW 2.42 requires that courts provide interpreters for persons who are D/HH/DB when they are required to attend court ordered-programs or services. In addition to the provision of qualified interpreters in all proceedings where required, court's bilingual staff may assist with language needs outside of court proceedings. Bilingual staff shall be trained to understand their role, how it differs from the role of an interpreter, and that staff are only used for basic communications.

C. Translated Forms and Documents

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts understand the importance of translating forms, documents, and electronic materials into non-English languages, so that LEP individuals have greater access to the courts' services. Judicial and court staff shall not use web-based applications or software to process or provide translations for LEP individuals.

State forms which have been translated are available at www.courts.wa.gov/forms.

- Provide information regarding the content of the form using bilingual staff.
- Have an in-person interpreter sight translate the form.
- Use telephonic interpreting.

D. Providing Emergency Information to LEP Court Customers

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts are responsible for taking reasonable steps to ensure that LEP and D/HH/DB individuals have meaningful access to emergency information should an emergency situation arise. The court provides such information in the following ways:

- There are universally understood emergency signs located in the strategic places throughout the courthouse building;
- Emergency exits are clearly marked;
- Evacuation map(s) are located in visible public area points with an indication using the most common non-English language (in addition to English) spoken in the area to designate the evacuation map(s).
- Bilingual staff is informed and trained to provide emergency information.

VI. TRAINING

The San Juan County Superior and District Courts are committed to providing training for all judicial and court staff members who come in contact with LEP and D/HH/DB individuals in order to ensure the successful delivery of language access services. The court will provide staff training on all requirements in this Language Access Plan. Additional training opportunities will include:

- Proper appointment and scheduling of interpreters for all court proceedings and court-managed programs and services;
- How to voir dire a non-credentialed court interpreter (Judges or Judge Pro Tems only);

Training efforts will include an initial training for new staff on the requirements of the current Language Access Plan and an annual training for existing court personnel that addresses any revisions made to the Plan.

 - Spanish
- Establish mechanisms for obtaining feedback from the public, attorneys and justice partners regarding the implementation and effectiveness of the administrative protocol and take this feedback into account at the yearly evaluation of the protocol.

C. Annual Evaluation of the LAP

To this end, the court will continue to communicate on an ongoing basis with stakeholders, including LEP and D/HH/DB persons, attorneys, and the public in the following manner(s):

- Email and follow up at a meeting with the local bar during one of their monthly meetings;

This assessment will be done by reviewing various areas in which the court provides language access services, taking into consideration, at a minimum, the number of interpreters requested by language in the courts and the identification of emerging changes in the languages spoken or signed within the court's local population as identified by any informational means or by other methods. Elements of the assessment evaluation shall include:
