Hey Rick,

I just received several email alerts about the upcoming Comp Plan Workshops on other islands. I'm really happy that folks are being reminded about these upcoming workshops. (The forwarded copy is below.)

When clicking "Read on..." it simply takes me to a county page with the calendar entry without any additional information.

I would like to suggest that the "read on..." link include a description of the event and a link to more information.

The same would be great for county council meetings as well. A link to an agenda would be very useful.

I'd love to hear your thoughts on this.

Thanks for all that you do Rick!

Natalie Menacho
