RE: Lopez Village Plan and assorted documents, March 26, 2019.

I have owned the property located at 2290 Fisherman Bay Road, Lopez Island, WA 98261 for some time. The plan identifies a list of historic properties which includes Weeks Barn. I respectfully request that you take Weeks Barn off the historical property list because the barn blew down and was destroyed in a wind storm January 2018.

Lopez Island Library building, constructed in the late 1800s, was one of the original schools on the Island and was known as the Little Red Schoolhouse. At different times, it also served as a restaurant and fire station. The Library's doorway was modified from the Little Red Schoolhouse and the first four windows on the front left of the Library were part of the original schoolhouse structure. Overhead in the Library is the original schoolhouse second story, complete with its jaunty cupola, a hallmark of days past blended with the present.

Other significant and historic buildings are identified on the following list including the date of construction, if known, and merchant listed in parenthesis:

- Weeks Garage
- J.A. Paine House (1901)
- Smith House
- C.A. Kent House (1883 - 1901)
- Joe Thorton House
- Dr. B. Muscott (early 1900's – moved from beach north of Islander)
- Lopez Congregational Church (1904)
- Fish Bay Building
- Ed Weeks House and Water Tower (Old Thrift Shop)
- Lopez Purity Store (Just Heavenly Fudge Factory)
- Oscar Weeks house and pear tree (Isabel's / Déjà vu)
- Village Center Building
- Weeks Barn
- Burt Weeks house and water tower (Old Homestead Building – Blossom/Vortex Village Arts complex)
- Benson Hall (1930 – from Eastsound) plus two buildings
