Good Morning,

I am writing to urge you to reconsider the site zoning for Community Treasures. This business has been a valuable asset to our community.

Many people on the island are on limited incomes and struggle to make ends meet. Community Treasures is a resource for household goods that many could otherwise not afford. True, there is also the FHFD Thrift House in Friday Harbor, but there are many items that can be found at Community Treasures that can not be found FHFD Thrift House.

This is also a place where people can take items they no longer need that perhaps someone else could use. I honestly believe that if this business wasn't in operation, a huge percent of what is donated there would end up at the dump. The FHFD Thrift House only takes certain items, and who can afford the ferry fare just to be able to make donations?

Please reconsider the zoning for this business site.
