I. INTRODUCTION

The applicants own a property located at 828 Discovery Way, which is in the Rural Residential land use, in the Rosario Highlands No. 3 subdivision on Orcas Island. There is a main residence on the 1.74-acre property, as well as an accessory dwelling unit (ADU) built in 1987. Only the ADU is covered by this permit, as county codes prohibit vacation rental of both the ADU and the principal residence on the site. SJCC 18.40.275(A). The Staff Report thoroughly summarizes the details associated with this application and demonstrates how it complies with applicable approval criteria, subject to conditions. As explained below, the pending application is approved, subject to conditions of approval.

II. CONTENTS OF RECORD

TESTIMONY AT PUBLIC HEARING:

All witnesses who offered testimony during the public hearing were placed under oath. Julie Thompson, the County's planner assigned to review the pending application, appeared at the hearing and briefly summarized her review and information in the Staff Report, noting that all procedural and notice requirements have been satisfied. Two written comments are included in the record, one opposing vacation rentals, and the other supportive of the pending application. (See Exhibits 12 and 14). Upon consideration of the application materials and comments, Ms. Thompson explained that the application merits approval, subject to conditions. No one spoke at the hearing in opposition to the requested permit.

EXHIBITS:

- A. Staff Report, prepared by Project Planner, Julie Thompson, dated August 12, 2019, with seventeen exhibits as numbered and described on page 10 of the Staff Report.

III. APPLICABLE LAW

Jurisdiction.

Under SJCC 18.80.090(C), if a development application is processed as a Conditional Use Permit application, "the Hearing Examiner is the decisionmaker." SJCC 18.80.100(C), captioned "Decisionmaking Authority", provides that "[t]he hearing examiner has the authority to approve or deny conditional use permit ... applications, and to impose conditions of approval on such permits."

Conditional Use Permit required for vacation rentals.

SJCC 18.30.340 expressly allows vacation rentals in the Rural Residential land use designation, subject to a Conditional Use Permit.

Standards for vacation rentals; Criteria for CUP approval.

San Juan County’s Unified Development Code includes specific standards that apply to all vacation (short-term, less than 30 days) rentals of single family residential units and accessory dwelling units or portions thereof. These standards are now found at SJCC 18.40.275. The Criteria for approval of a Conditional Use Permit are found at SJCC 18.80.100(D), and include ten items that must be considered by the Examiner.

Burden and Nature of Proof.

Under SJCC 18.80.040(B), “[t]he burden of proof is on the project permit applicant. The project permit application must be supported by evidence that it is consistent with the applicable state law, County development regulations, the Comprehensive Plan, and the applicant meets [their] burden of proving that any significant adverse environmental impacts have been adequately analyzed and addressed.”

IV. ISSUE PRESENTED

Whether a preponderance of evidence demonstrates that the applicants have satisfied their burden of proof to meet the criteria for Conditional Use Permit approval?

Short Answer: Yes, subject to conditions.

V. FINDINGS OF FACT

Upon consideration of all the evidence, exhibits, testimony, codes, policies, regulations, and other information contained in the file, the undersigned Examiner issues the following findings, conclusions and Decision approving the Conditional Use Permit as set forth below.

1. Any statements in previous or following sections of this document that are deemed findings are hereby adopted as such, including without limitation the Introduction provided above.
2. As noted above, Ronald Claybourn and Jacqueline Daigle, the applicants, own a property located in the Rosario Highlands area on Orcas Island, with a primary residence and a 1-bedroom ADU on the site. The ADU was built in 1987, so it may be used as a vacation rental, unlike ADUs built/permitted after 2007. This permit only applies to the ADU, as vacation rental of both a principal residence and an ADU on the same property is prohibited by current county codes. See SJCC 18.40.275(A).

3. The applicant seeks a conditional use permit to rent the 1-bedroom ADU on their property as a short-term vacation rental.

4. The Staff Report thoroughly explains how: a) the applicants' proposed vacation rental can be operated and conditioned to satisfy all applicable performance standards for Vacation (short-term) rentals, found in SJCC 18.40.275 (See Staff Report, pages 2 – 5); and b) how the pending application satisfies all approval criteria for the requested Conditional Use Permit (SJCC 18.80.100(D)), subject to conditions (See Staff Report, pages 5-7). Except as modified in this Decision, the Examiner adopts all statements of fact and findings included in the Staff Report as Findings of Fact supporting this Decision and Conditions of Approval set forth below.

5. There is no evidence in the record that would serve as a basis to deny the requested permit. Instead, the analysis and explanation provided in the Staff Report, with its supporting exhibits, constitutes a preponderance of evidence demonstrating how the requested permit complies with all applicable approval criteria. If the applicants fail to comply with any conditions of approval, it could result in revocation of the permit addressed in this decision.

6. Concerns about potential noise problems and fire risks expressed by uphill neighbors are understandable, and serve to support specific conditions of approval, including without limitation: Condition No. 7, prohibiting noise and smoke that presents a detriment to adjoining properties; and Condition No. 9(A)(1)(e) and No. 12, addressing outdoor burning and compliance with any burn bans in effect. Neighbors within 300-feet of the vacation rental will receive copies of any approved property management plan, which must include rules of conduct for all vacation rental guests and the valid phone number for an on-island property representative who can be reached 24-hours a day to respond to complaints or emergencies. See Condition No. 9(A).

7. As with all permits issued by the County, this permit does not waive or excuse an applicant's obligation to comply with any utility service provider's lawful regulations or requirements, including without limitation electrical, telephone, cable, internet, sanitation, and water service providers.

8. Again, violations of any condition of approval may be grounds for issuance of a Notice of Violation and possible revocation of the conditional use permit addressed herein.

VI. CONCLUSIONS of LAW

1. Based on the Findings as summarized above, the undersigned examiner concludes that the proposed Conditional Use Permit for a vacation rental conforms to all applicable land use requirements and appropriately mitigates adverse environmental impacts. Upon reaching such findings and conclusions as noted above, the CUP application meets the standards necessary to obtain approval by the County.
2. The Department's recommended conditions of approval as set forth in the Staff Report are reasonable, supported by the evidence, and capable of accomplishment. Each and every condition is adopted and incorporated herein by reference, except as modified below.
3. Any Finding or other statements in previous or following sections of this document that are deemed Conclusions are hereby adopted as such.

VII. DECISION

Based upon the preceding Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, evidence presented through the course of the open record hearing, all materials contained in the record, and the Examiner's online site visit, the undersigned Examiner APPROVES the Conditional Use Permit for the Claybourn/Daigle vacation rental, subject to the attached Conditions of Approval as recommended by the County's staff and adopted herein.
