

MEDIA RELEASE

San Juan County

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 28, 2020

New Case in San Juan County

One new positive COVID test result has been reported in San Juan County, for an Orcas Island resident who is a close household contact of the Orcas resident reported as positive on October 26th. This is the 36th case reported in San Juan County.

Given the close household proximity of the individual to a previously positive case, this recent test result was expected.