SAN JUAN COUNTY PUBLIC NOTICE 2022 Detached Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) Eligibility Application Deadline

San Juan County Department of Community Development (DCD) is now accepting eligibility applications for detached ADU permits proposed outside of urban growth areas and activity centers. ADU eligibility applications must be received no later than 4:30 pm February 7, 2022. In 2022, 9 eligibility slots are allowed for the construction of new ADUs and 2 are available for the conversion of an existing accessory structure, legally in existence for five years. DCD will hold a lottery if the number of eligibility applications exceeds the number of ADUs allowed in 2022.

DCD's ADU eligibility application form must be completed and submitted to DCD along with the fee of $245. This form is available online at <https://www.sanjuanco.com/638/Accessory-Dwelling-Unit-Information>, online through the online permit center at sanjuanco.com/opc or at 135 Rhone St, Friday Harbor.

Complete applications including the fee must be received by DCD submitted timely online, in the drop-box at the Courthouse, or by mail to P.O. Box 947, Friday Harbor, WA 98250 by 4:30 pm on February 7th, 2022.

If needed, a lottery will take place on February 28, 2022, at 11:30 am, at the front counter in the DCD office at 135 Rhone St, Friday Harbor, WA. Applications received after the February 7th deadline are ineligible for the lottery but will be added to a waitlist.
